

Fact Sheet

History:

Founded in 1980. May Arts originally sold high-end silk flowers imported from Taiwan, which were decorated using quality woven ribbons. The decorative ribbons proved so popular among customers that the business evolved into a ribbon wholesaler to the trades. May Arts opened retail operations in 2013.

Headquarters:

Glenside, Pennsylvania

Employees:

10-20

Key Management:

Joseph Duffey, Owner
Richard Jenkins, Operations Manager
Nicole Sorgini-Donaghy, Director of Marketing & Business Development
Elyse Duffey-Bernardo, Creative Director

Mission:

May Arts is a leading wholesaler of high quality ribbon to both b2b and retail customers. May Arts serves business customers in a wide variety of trades from large retail stores to home-based businesses in the craft and scrapbooking, gift, stationery, fashion, quilting, fancy food, floral, interior design and jewelry industries. May Arts has become a leader in the marketplace due to its commitment to design, readily available to ship inventory, and knowledgeable customer service representatives.

Customers:

16,000 U.S. and International customers

Products:

May Arts provides a superior selection of ribbon, including silk, satin, lace, grosgrain, and organza in a variety of patterns and prints. May Arts ribbon sizes are available in widths from 1mm to 5". We are known for our distinct designs and colors, as well as the high quality of our woven ribbons. Thanks to a large on-hand inventory, all our products can be shipped out same day.

Online Connections:

Website: <http://www.mayarts.com>
Blog: <http://www.mayarts.com/blog>
Facebook: <http://www.facebook.com/mayarts>
Twitter: <http://twitter.com/MayArtsRibbon>
Pinterest: <https://www.pinterest.com/mayartsribbon>

Business Development & Media Contact:

Nicole Sorgini-Donaghy
(203) 637-8366
nicole@mayarts.com

Advertising & Social Media Contact:

Joseph Duffey
(203) 637-8366
joe@mayarts.com